Activity 5

Fill in the gaps with the verbs in the right tenses.

Dear Irene,

I (be)..... very glad to hear from you and I am really sorry for not writing earlier but I was on holiday last week and I only (get) back this morning. I (go)..... on an adventure holiday in the mountains and I (enjoy)..... myself very much. In fact it was one of the best holidays I have ever (have)..... . I (arrange) it with a group of friends who are crazy with white water rafting and although our plan was to ski we also (find)..... ourselves fighting with the angry waters of a river. One of the days we (ask) our instructor to take us somewhere quieter. It was then that we (have)..... the adventure of our life. While we (go) gently down the river a fallen tree overturned (overturn) our boat and we found ourselves in the frozen waters. Of course we were frightened and worried stiff but thankfully we (manage) to get to the shore safely. It is OK talking about it all now that I (sit) next to the fireplace but then it was scary and rather unpleasant. On the other hand though, I am (think) of going back there again sometime because it was a really exciting holiday. I will have to go now because my mother has invited some people for lunch and she (call)..... me to help her.

Hope to hear from you soon,
Artemis

Activity 2 - Reading

a) Read the definition of the word 'idol'. Does it match the qualities of famous people you know?

b) Make a short list of the reasons why teenagers have idols.

In recent years there has been a great rise in the number of young people who have idols. A teen idol is a famous person who is admired by teenagers. The term means idol for teens; a teen idol is often young, but in many cases may be older. Teen idols are usually actors or pop singers. Although performers have always attracted young people, the teen idol mainly came about as a result of mass communications such as radio and television.

Activity 3

Read the short texts on page 14 quickly and find out who says the following:

- a Young people admire and have respect for idols
- b My friends really like her
- c I stopped liking her
- d I started to like her
- e He gives the impression of being nice
- f I want to copy him when I get older

- a _____
- b _____
- c _____
- d _____
- e _____
- f _____

Activity 4

Read the texts on p. 14 again carefully and find a Phrasal verb (verb + words like: up, across, off, etc.) which mean the same as the sentences in activity 3.

- a _____
- b _____
- c _____
- d _____
- e _____
- f _____

UNIT 2

Activity 5

Put each of the sentences a-g below the text into the correct space. Look carefully at the words before and after the spaces and use the pronouns (he, she, it, them, her) to help you match the sentences.

'Stars in Their Eyes'

Young people have always had idols to admire and look up to. In the fifties and sixties teenagers loved stars like Marilyn Monroe, Elvis and The Beatles. Today, young people also have idols, from footballers to pop stars. Youth Express finds out who young people look up to today.

"Young people have always had idols because they want someone to look up to."

Craig Byers, 16, Newcastle

My idol is David Beckham, the footballer. 1 _____ I think we have idols because we need someone to look up to and respect. In a way, it was Beckham who inspired me to play football. When I grow up, I want to be just like him as I have great admiration for him. I have read all kinds of things about him. My parents have been United fans all their lives, so they like him, too. I once saw him up close when I was on holiday on a beach in Greece. He felt very proud when he captained the England team in 2003.

Shauna Jones, 14, Liverpool

By far the person I like most is Christina Aguilera because her songs are just brilliant and she isn't a snob. She is very popular too among my school mates. I started liking her when she first came on the television, but I don't know why we idolise people. 2 _____ I think about half my friends are into her, too, but I have more posters than them on my walls and on my ceiling. Even my parents have idols - pop stars like Blue and Westlife. It's kinda cool. I like their idols and they like mine.

Toni Gilbert, 16, Manchester

It's Westlife for me. They are always on my mind. I started to like them about six months ago but before that it was Britney Spears. I went off her because Westlife are better, although not as successful as Britney. I know all their songs by heart. 3 _____ I think young people have idols because they like music. I don't believe everything the media puts out about my idols. My mom's idol is Robbie Williams because she is keen on his songs, but she thinks Westlife are OK, too.

Efi Dimitriou, 15, Athens

To my mind, Daniel Radcliffe is the best. He became famous from playing Harry Potter. I think he's popular is because he comes across as really kind and respectful, and also he is very good looking. He doesn't seem to care about his new fame and lives an ordinary life with his parents. He isn't at all snobbish. He made his acting debut in 1999 in a film about David Copperfield. 4 _____ I try to get hold of anything about him like posters and different items with his photograph in them. In fact, my bedroom is full of Harry Potter things which my mum goes on about.

Evaggelia Ioannou, Thessaloniki

My idol is Rachel from S Club because I think she is really hip and she is also very fashionable. I think I first took to her when S Club had their first single, Bring It All Back. Young people have idols because if they want to do the same job they get inspiration from that person and then they gain confidence to go out and do it themselves. I think that Rachel from S Club has helped to make me confident in my singing because I like to pretend that I am like her. 5 _____ I buy her records and posters because I like to collect things that remind me of her. I think my mom's idol is Elvis Presley and my four-year-old sister likes S Club Juniors.

Jade Henderson, 16, North London

My idol is Robbie Williams because he has a fantastic voice and he has been through a lot. I have liked him for as long as I can remember -since he was in Take That, so about 12 years. On the whole young people have idols because they want someone to look up to. I buy lots of posters and calendars of him. I love him but not all my friends do because we all have different tastes. 6 _____ My parents don't have an idol but they love some of Julio Iglesias' songs.

- a. Last year I saw them in concert and I was in tears.
- b. Since then he has appeared in all the Harry Potter films.
- c. I have collected a lot of her posters and put them on my wall.
- d. I am definitely more of a fan than they are.
- e. I have been fond of him since I was young.
- g. I look up to her like a big sister.

Activity 6 - Comprehension

- a) Whose idol used to be in a pop group?

- b) Who wanted to be like his idol when he grew up?

- c) Who believes her idol has helped her in some way?

- d) Whose mother isn't happy with her room?

- e) Who distrusts what the newspapers and television say about their idol?

- f) Who has put posters in an unusual place in her bedroom?

Activity 7 - Language work: prepositional phrases

a) Put the parts of the phrases into the correct column.

Activity 1

Read the text on roller coaster rides and use words from the box to complete it.

Use your dictionary to find the meanings of the words you don't know.

ascent kinetic energy friction potential track

The basic elements of a roller coaster are kinetic energy and friction. Kinetic energy is the power that an object gets because it is moving. Friction is the force that stops something moving when it rubs on another surface. Both are used in roller coaster rides. The coaster cars ride along on a long winding _____. The track begins with a steep _____, which builds up a reservoir of _____ energy in the coaster car. The rest of the track's hills and valleys, twists and turns change the built-up _____ back and forth between potential energy to _____ energy. As the train moves, it gradually loses energy because of _____ until it reaches the end of the ride.

Activity 9 - Reading

Use the information in the Unit to help you complete this text. Complete the following text by choosing the correct word from those given.

Have you ever experienced 1..., which means going against changes in your state of 2..., for example, in a car while it is braking to a stop? The 3... of the road on the locked wheels provides the unbalanced force to change the car's 4... of motion, however, there is no 5... force to change your own state of motion. Therefore, you continue in motion, sliding along the seat in a forward motion. A person in motion tends to stay in motion with the same 6... and in the same direction unless there is a(n) 7... force. In a car this can be a seat belt. Yes, seat belts are used to provide safety for passengers whose motion is governed by Newton's laws. The seat belt provides the unbalanced force which brings you from a state of motion to a state of 8.... So, what do you think might happen when you do not put on your seat belt and your car hits another one?

Activity 13 - Comprehension

Read the text below and then answer comprehension questions a-d.

Modern mass media like newspapers, cinema, television, affect the way we behave socially. However, the telephone, invented by Alexander Graham Bell in 1876 has had the greatest influence. Interestingly, the phone itself has not changed much but it is the way we use the phone lines that has changed. Because of the phone, we now have internet connections connecting people all over the world. The internet has taken over the way we work, relax and communicate. The internet today provides us with a useful means of communication and helps to spread information, knowledge, thought, attitudes and beliefs. On sites like Bebo and MySpace teenagers build personal pages and develop social networks to communicate with friends.

- What means of mass communication has the writer mentioned?
- Has telephone technology changed in the past 100 years or not?
- What is the writer's opinion on the influence of the internet?
- How do young people use the internet?

Activity 14

Read the texts below and put them in the right order.

A By the 1930s most phone cases were plastic, and phone design changed little until push-button phones became common in the 1980s.

B In the 1990s, the first practical videophones became available, so you could see as well as hear the person you were speaking to.

C By the 1890s the familiar style of handset began to emerge. Winding the handle of this ornate phone set a signal to the operator at the exchange.

D The 1920s 'candlestick' phone incorporated a dial which could be used to call numbers via the automatic telephone exchanges that were coming into use.

E In 1877 the American inventor Thomas Alva Edison (1847-1931) invented the carbon microphone, which ensured the telephone's success.

Activity 3

Read the text and tick if the answers below are True or False.

It is easier to get hurt playing football or basketball than on a fun park ride. The reason why rides are safe is that they use the laws of Physics to make people feel as if they are in danger. The roller coaster, for example, is a machine that uses gravity and energy to make the car travel quickly along a track. Going uphill gravity slows the car down and kinetic energy drives it along very quickly. It finally stops when there is friction at the end of the track.

	True	False
1. People always get hurt playing basketball.
2. Theme Park rides are safe.
3. People are in danger when they use the laws of Physics.

Activity 13

Read the text below about myths and their meaning, and then answer the questions.

Myths are not fixed truths, but possible ways of explaining the truth. They try to provide us with answers to the basic questions of why and how we exist. For example, we use myths to explain why our world is full of pain and suffering. Through stories, poems, songs and symbols, myths from around the world explore the mysteries of life and death. Like the Greek myths, good and evil always appears in the form of a God. In other cultures the powers of creation and destruction might be in a single God. For instance, in Hindu mythology, the God Shiva is responsible for both creating and destroying all things. Shiva lives on Mount Kailasa with his wife Parvati.

a) Do myths have only one meaning or do they have many meanings?

b) What is the purpose of myths?

c) Which Greek Gods are like Shiva and Parvati?

Keeping traditions and customs alive

Activity 1

Read the text below and choose the correct word for each space.

The Carnival in Rio

Like all cultures, the Brazilians have their own 1..... way of doing things. This is especially true with the 2..... celebration of the coming of Easter which lasts for four days. 3..... this time the streets of Rio are full of people watching or taking part in a lavish Carnival 4..... The Brazilians celebrate with a world-famous carnival which takes 5..... seven weeks before Easter every year. The Rio carnival probably grew out of the pagan celebrations and the 6..... of ordinary people celebrating the end of beginning of Spring.

It is a time of great partying and dancing with people dressing 7..... in all sorts of colourful and amazing 8..... which they have spent all year making. The word Carnival comes from “carne vale” meaning “farewell or goodbye to meat”. Although the official Carnival starting day is Saturday, the partying begins in earnest the night before and continues through Tuesday (Mardi Gras means “Fat Tuesday”).

During the Carnival, the different parade elements must work as a single unit, dramatizing the same theme, which the samba school changes annually. They willingly do this because Carnival is a fantasy 9....., which helps them forget their hard everyday lives. The major 10..... of every Carnival is the sounds and sights of the parading samba schools that goes on from dusk to day break.

A. Before you read the article that follows think about how colour affects our psychology and mood and complete the chart.

- a) fear _____ b) love _____ c) jealousy _____
d) death _____ e) sadness _____ g) anger _____

B. Read the short article to check your answers.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF COLOUR

The profound effect colour has on our moods, emotions, and behaviour is reflected in the sayings that pepper our everyday language. We unconsciously resort to these to describe how we are feeling or to explain our reaction to something. Using colours that everyone can relate to in these sayings makes them an extremely effective form of communication.

Purple prose

“Purple prose” describes flowery language, in which the writer gets carried away.

Green with envy

To be “green with jealousy or envy” is to be emotionally out of balance - green is the colour that holds the balance between the warm or red end of the colour spectrum and the cool or blue end.

Seeing red

When we say “see red” or “it was like a red rag to a bull”, we are describing a response that is invariably immediate and involves anger or aggression. This is something that is very deeply ingrained in us. If our ancestors had not met the threat of danger with the will to fight or the strength and speed to run away - the so-called “fight or flight” response - we would not have evolved to the present day.

Yellow-bellied

“Yellow” or “yellow-bellied” is often used to describe a coward, someone who will not move to defend himself or someone else.

The blues

When we say we have “the blues”, we are communicating that we are in solitary, introverted mode.

Black dog

A “colourful character” is someone who has lived a full and interesting life; “colourful language” often includes words of the four-letter variety into which a lot of physical energy is usually put. By contrast, we talk about the “black dog” of depression, using black to describe a world from which all colour, or life, seems to have disappeared.

Activity 9 - Mediation

An English-speaking friend of your parents has heard about Art Therapy and wants to know more about it. Read the Greek text and then write a short description of what Art Therapy is.

Art Therapy

Πριν ακόμη αρχίσει ο άνθρωπος να μιλάει, ζωγράφιζε. Χάραζε σύμβολα στα τοιχώματα των σπηλαιών για να ξορκίσει τους φόβους του, να εκδηλώσει την χαρά του, να πάρει δύναμη. Σήμερα ο άνθρωπος εκφράζεται με πολύ περισσότερα μέσα και αυτό τον έχει απομακρύνει από τον πρωτόγονο τρόπο επικοινωνίας των συναισθημάτων του. Οι επιστήμονες όμως θεωρούν ότι αυτός ο τρόπος έκφρασης μπορεί να θεραπεύσει τους ανθρώπους, απελευθερώνοντας τα συναισθήματα, που οι ίδιοι μπλοκάρουν. Έχουν δημιουργηθεί πολλά κέντρα Art Therapy ανά τον κόσμο και στην Ελλάδα. Ένα τέτοιο κέντρο λειτουργεί στην Σκόπελο.

Activity 3 - Reading

Read the text and choose the best caption .

- a) Being fooled by food
- b) Being fooled by advertisements
- c) Being cheated by Brand-names

Brand-name rip-off foods

The processed foods, the popular brand name foods, are the most expensive of all. These deliver the least nutrition for your money. If you buy anything in a pretty box, anything that's been processed, anything that's been advertised on television or something that comes with a coupon, you have been conned. You're being ripped off. Most foods that have coupons are so overpriced to begin with that the food manufacturer is still making money even after you redeem the coupon. If you really want poor nutrition and want to waste a lot of money on foods that aren't doing anything for you health-wise, then buy all the groceries that are advertised. Buy all the stuff that other people around the world who don't know anything about health tend to buy.

2. It makes no sense to leave appliances on if you're not using them - you're simply wasting energy, losing money and contributing to climate change. Turn that TV off when you're not watching it!

3. Some energy suppliers can now provide you with electricity that is produced from 100% renewable sources, thus avoiding causing climate change. It's easy to switch and prices are very competitive.

4. If you keep an eye on the electricity you use it's much easier to reduce your climate change impact and save money on your bill. There are various easy-to-use products that let you see exactly what you're using.

5. Insulating your house is a very effective way to reduce your carbon emissions. On average 30% of your heat simply escapes through the walls and is wasted. It's simple and easy to install and makes a big difference.

6. Turning down your thermostat by just 1°C could cut your carbon dioxide emissions by over 5% as well as saving you around €30 per year. Do you really need the house to be that hot? What about wearing a jumper?

What's the weather like?

7. Modern condensing boilers use considerably less gas than traditional ones, thus significantly reducing the impact on climate change. They're quick to install and save on space as well as money.

8. Each time we fly or drive by road we contribute directly to climate change by burning fossil fuels. If we switch more of our journeys to train or bus this reduces our impact and if we walk or cycle we have no impact!

9. Air travel is a huge contributor to climate change and its impact is growing more rapidly each year. Always ask yourself - do you really need to fly or is it possible to travel closer to home or go via train instead?

10. Most of us far more 'stuff' than we ever need. Every time you buy a product you're responsible for the emissions due to its manufacture, packaging and transport. So only buy stuff you really need or will actually use.

APPENDIX

UNIT 1

Activity 1

Read this letter paying attention to the underlined grammatical forms.

Can you identify the tenses?

Then write your reply below.

Dear Maria,

A couple of weeks ago while I was watching a holiday programme about Greece on television I saw that Crete looked really great for a holiday. As I know absolutely nothing about Crete, its history and its culture, I think that you might be able to help. What I really want to know is about the Minoan civilization which people say was the first civilization in Europe. I do hope that you can help. All the best for now.

James.

REPLY

Dear James,

As you know, my grandmother is from Crete and she knows a lot about the things you asked. The Minoan civilisation _____

IT'S YOUR CHOICE

Activity 2

A. Fill in the gaps with the verbs in the PAST SIMPLE tense.

Dear Irene,

I (be)..... very glad to hear from you and I am really sorry for not writing earlier but I was on holiday last week and I only (get) back this morning. I (go)..... on an adventure holiday in the mountains and I (enjoy)..... myself very much. In fact it was one of the best holidays I have ever had. I (arrange) it with a group of friends who are crazy with white water rafting and although our plan was to ski we also (find)..... ourselves fighting with the angry waters of a river. One of the days we (ask) our instructor to take us somewhere quieter. It was then that we (have)..... the adventure of our life. While we were going gently down the river, a fallen tree (overturn)..... our boat and we found ourselves in the frozen waters. Of course we were frightened and worried stiff but thankfully we (manage) to get to the shore safely.

It is OK talking about it all now that I'm sitting next to the fireplace but then it was scary and rather unpleasant. On the other hand though, I am thinking of going back there again sometime because it was a really exciting holiday.

I will have to go now because my mother has invited some people for lunch and she's calling me to help her.

Hope to hear from you soon,
Artemis

Use the information in the Unit to help you complete this text. Complete the following text by choosing the correct word from those given.

Have you ever experienced 1..., which means going against changes in your state of 2..., for example, in a car while it is braking to a stop? The 3... of the road on the locked wheels provides the unbalanced force to change the car's 4... of motion, however, there is no 5... force to change your own state of motion. Therefore, you continue in motion, sliding along the seat in a forward motion. A person in motion tends to stay in motion with the same 6... and in the same direction unless there is a(n) 7... force. In a car this can be a seat belt. Yes, seat belts are used to provide safety for passengers whose motion is governed by Newton's laws. The seat belt provides the unbalanced force which brings you from a state of motion to a state of 8.... So, what do you think might happen when you do not put on your seat belt and your car hits another one?

Activity 5 - Comprehension

Read the text below and then say whether questions a-d below are TRUE or FALSE.

Modern mass media like newspapers, cinema, television, affect the way we behave socially. However, the telephone, invented by Alexander Graham Bell in 1876 has had the greatest influence. Interestingly, the phone itself has not changed much but it is the way we use the phone lines that has changed. Because of the phone, we now have internet connections connecting people all over the world. The internet has taken over the way we work, relax and communicate. The internet today provides us with a useful means of communication and helps to spread information, knowledge, thought, attitudes and beliefs. On sites like Bebo and MySpace teenagers build personal pages and develop social networks to communicate with friends.

a) The internet is not a means of communication.
b) Telephone use has not changed much in the past 100 years.
c) The internet has influenced our lives positively.
d) Young people today do not know how to communicate with each other.

Activity 3

Read the text below about myths and their meaning, and then answer the questions in your notebooks.

Myths are not fixed truths, but possible ways of explaining the truth. They try to provide us with answers to the basic questions of why and how we exist. For example, we use myths to explain why our world is full of pain and suffering. Through stories, poems, songs and symbols, myths from around the world explore the mysteries of life and death. Like the Greek myths, good and evil always appear in the form of a God. In other cultures the powers of creation and destruction might be in a single God. For instance, in Hindu mythology, the God Shiva is responsible for both creating and destroying all things. Shiva lives on Mount Kailasa with his wife Parvati.

Activity 1

Read the article and answer True (T) or False (F) for the following statements

1. Anger is represented by the colour red. []
2. Yellow could be used to describe the way we feel when we are scared. []
3. To be 'green with envy' describes how someone feels when they are in love. []
4. We use the colour black to describe a world full of colour. []
5. When we have 'the blues' we are sad. []

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF COLOUR

The profound effect colour has on our moods, emotions, and behaviour is reflected in the sayings that pepper our everyday language. We unconsciously resort to these to describe how we are feeling or to explain our reaction to something. Using colours that everyone can relate to in these sayings makes them an extremely effective form of communication.

Purple prose

"Purple prose" describes flowery language, in which the writer gets carried away.

Green with envy

To be "green with jealousy or envy" is to be emotionally out of balance - green is the colour that holds the balance between the warm or red end of the colour spectrum and the cool or blue end.

Seeing red

When we say "see red" or "it was like a red rag to a bull", we are describing a response that is invariably immediate and involves anger or aggression. This is something that is very deeply ingrained in us. If our ancestors had not met the threat of danger with the will to fight or the strength and speed to run away - the so-called "fight or flight" response - we would not have evolved to the present day.

Yellow-bellied

"Yellow" or "yellow-bellied" is often used to describe a coward, someone who will not move to defend himself or someone else.

The blues

When we say we have "the blues", we are communicating that we are in solitary, introverted mode.

Black dog

A "colourful character" is someone who has lived a full and interesting life; "colourful language" often includes words of the four-letter variety into which a lot of physical energy is usually put. By contrast, we talk about the "black dog" of depression, using black to describe a world from which all colour, or life, seems to have disappeared.
