LESSON 2

& ACTIVITY A.

RECYCLING - Yes, there is a lot we can do!
Of course we can help save our environment. Why don't you try and sort out the activities below in two columns? Decide which are the things you can do at home and write them under the first column. Then decide which ones you can do at school and write them under the second column. There are some which can be done both at home and at school. Write them in both columns. Make any necessary changes. Then draw a picture that can show one or more of these problems. Compare what you did with those of your classmates.

Q ACTIVITY B.

- Read about the Minotaur. Some sentences are missing from this myth. Read the ones that follow and decide where they should go.

The Minotaur's maze.

There are many strange creatures in the Greek myths. One of them is the Minotaur, which had the body of a man and the head of a bull.
Every year seven youths and seven maidens were sent into the maze and starved to death, or were eaten by the Minotaur. No-one had ever escaped. When he arrived at Knossos the king's daughter Ariadne fell in love with him and decided to help him. Theseus found the Minotaur and killed him with his sword. Then he followed the trail made by the string. Soon, he found the way out of the maze and back to Ariadne, who waited for him.

Chattington, J., (2003) The Ancient Greeks, The British Museum
a. She gave him a large ball of string, which he unwound as he went into the maze.
b. One year the hero Theseus offered to be one of the seven.

How much do you know about H. C. Andersen?

INFORMATION ABOUT HANS CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN AndersenFairyTales.com presents

The Story of Hans Christian Andersen

Hans Christian Andersen was Danish. He was born in Odense, Denmark, almost 200 years ago on April 2, 1805. In fact, the year 2005 marked his 200th birthday! His father was a shoemaker, and his mother was a washerwoman for rich people in large homes. In his stories you will find many themes of the differences between the poor and the rich. You will also find the occasional shoemaker.
Even as a child he always loved the arts, and he left home at age 14 to make his fortune. He was an artist, a singer and an actor, but he was not a success at first. He grew even poorer and almost died of hunger. He received some money and could afford to continue his education thanks to the help of a patron of the arts, the director of the Royal Theatre. He went to university in the capital city of Copenhagen and began writing.
Andersen was first known as a poet, and his poetry won him many patrons and paid his way to travel throughout Europe.
His first book of fairy tales was published in 1835. The book was a success, and he followed it with many other volumes of children's stories, almost one a year, right up until 1872! Because of his wonderful fairy tales, Andersen became known as the greatest writer in Denmark, and one of the most beloved children's authors in the world. In his lifetime, he wrote more than one hundred and fifty fairy tales, and his stories have been translated into over 100 languages!

One of the highest prizes in children's literature is the Hans Christian Andersen Award, presented to only one author and one illustrator every two years. It is presided over by Queen Margrethe II of Denmark. Hans Christian Andersen was tall and skinny with a big nose he always thought that he was very ugly. His stories show compassion for those who are outcast and suffering. They also make fun of the spoiled and conceited. His stories teach us that appearances can be deceiving, and that there is a magical beauty even within the most unlikely characters.

Elaine: I hear it is going to be a luxurious wedding. Joanne: Yes, they $\qquad$ (invite) 870 people. (1) Elaine: And they $\qquad$ (reserve) the most luxurious hotel in town for the reception. (2) Joanne: Oh, I $\qquad$ (not know) that! Have you seen the wedding dress? They say it is fabulous and very expensive. (3)
Elaine: Yes, they $\qquad$ (buy) it in France. It must have cost a fortune. (4) Joanne: And they $\qquad$ (receive) a lot of wonderful presents so far. (5)
Elaine: Yes, I saw the bride's gold watch yesterday. Her uncle bought it for her in Geneva.
Joanne: And lucky girl! Have you ever seen a more beautiful wedding ring?
Elaine: No, I haven't. You are right.
Joanne: Well, I think it's going to be the wedding of the year.
Elaine: I think so, too.

& ACTIVITY C (p. 91) - (*)
Read the following text and underline the present tense verbs with a BLUE pen, the past tense verbs with a RED pen and the future verbs with a GREEN pen. Also underline the present perfect verbs with a YELLOW pen.

I first met Susan in 2002. She was my brother's girlfriend. She was studying Physics and she loved travelling abroad. Her dream was to visit Peru in South America. This is why she wanted to learn Spanish. "I can help you", I told her. "What can you do about that?" she asked. "I have lived in Spain for five years because I was working there as an engineer. I can speak Spanish very well". "What a wonderful idea! Will I be able to speak Spanish in one year?" she asked. "Mmm, this is not so easy, but I think you will be able to communicate using simple phrases." "Not bad!", she said and gave me a kiss. Today Samantha lives in Peru and she works there. You see, while I was teaching her how to speak Spanish, she was thinking of finding a job there. I haven't seen her since the day she left; my brother either. I hope she is happy and she has found what she was looking for.
